How can sport contribute to enhancing positive outcomes for young people?

Theory of Change, Street Games 2021

What do we wish to achieve with the funding?

- Preventing and reducing violence, crime and anti social behaviour
- Building resilience and skills of young people through teamwork, commitment and interest
- Providing positive places for young people to engage and develop positive longer term relationships with other participants and adults
- Supporting the sports community to provide additional support for targeted young people
- Provide a more positive engagement with the police and other agencies where applicable.

5 key ingredients

1.

Right staffWhat experience do you have? Do you have more thantheory to offer?

2. Right young people

What is your present reach to our potential target audience? Who do you work with to help your reach?

Building on young people's strengths and developing a young person's prosocial identity

PRIMARY INTERVENTION	SECONDARY INTERVENTION	TERTIARY INTERVENTION
<ul> <li>All young people in a local community with a focus on areas of deprivation.</li> <li>Inclusive and reflecting the diversity of the local community</li> <li>Including young people in sports sessions who can act as pro-social peer role models for values, attitudes and behaviour.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Young people experiencing challenging circumstances and with additional vulnerabilities.</li> <li>Working with young people who are victims, perpetrators or both.</li> <li>Young people who have been formally or informally referred by agencies, who have been signposted to the sessions or who are self- referred.</li> <li>Including young people in group sport sessions as pro-social peer role models with shared lived experience.</li> <li>If group sessions, provide additional structure to support a pro-social approach and to avoid the potential for 'deviancy' training or the recruitment to gangs.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Complex and vulnerable young people with challenging circumstances already directly involved in offending behaviour.</li> <li>Greater reliance on formal referrals by youth justice and criminal justice partners</li> <li>For small group work, plan the selection of young people on information from local agencies to create the right mix, to protect young people and to avoid deviancy training.</li> </ul>
